Camp Session Information

Pirate Art Club: Project Lightship Classes meet Monday, Wednesday, Friday, July 26 – August 13

Please select the session(s) the registrant will attend.

Ages 4–6

10–11 AM (must have an attending adult)

Children will learn how to make a basic floating lantern. We will look at color and shapes deciding how and what they may communicate as each child invents their own identification pattern for their vessel. Basic gluing, cutting and stapling.

Ages 6–up

12:30–2 PM

After mastering the basics of making a floating platform, students will begin to experiment with a variety of materials for constructing larger scale sculpture. Basic joining with wire, glue, staples, string and tape.

Age 10–up

Junior artist time 11:30-12:30 (bring lunch)

Older students are invited to come over lunch hour for more advanced work time before joining the larger group in early afternoon.

(Fees include all materials and final Lightship Festival Event at Booth's Quarry)

All nine days (July 26, 28, 30, August 2, 4, 6, 9, 11, 13) $120
